Dear Doug;

Thank-you so much for your performance at our Entrepreneurial Roundtable. As the end-of-the-day speaker at a very intensive event, you had the particularly hard task of keeping a tired audience interested and energized. You were very successful in meeting this challenge.

One student's comment mirrored much of the rest of the audience, "At first, he had us in tears because we were laughing so hard. At the end, he had us in tears because his message was so powerful."

Your work is creating positive value in the world and you added a great deal to the Roundtable's success in transforming the lives of people in the audience.

All the best,

Kevin Prine
